Something to consider...

A white wall in the Veterans Memorial Museum in Branson, Missouri, bears the names of 406,000 US soldiers who died in World War II. Each name points beyond itself to the larger cause for which they died.

Nearly every nation has monuments to its fallen soldiers and a day to remember those who died fighting for their country. Whether or not we agree with their ideals, we do well to ponder their courage and sacrifice.

Hebrews 11 lists a number of heroes who lived and died courageously "by faith." Near the end of the chapter, the list changes from the names of individuals to groups of believers whose experiences ranged from miraculous deliverance to torture and death because they refused to compromise their faith in God.

Individually and collectively, they remind us that the spiritual battle is not over. One paraphrase of Hebrews 12:1 says, "Do you see what this means—all these pioneers who blazed the way, all these veterans cheering us on? It means we'd better get on with it" (The Message by Eugene Peterson).

As we recall every sacrifice made on our behalf and every example of spiritual courage, let's determine to keep our eyes on Jesus and to join the parade of faithful veterans of the faith. (Our Daily Bread)

As we remember those who've gone before
And think about the sacrifice they made,
We cannot help but think about our Lord,
Who gave His life—our ransom fully paid. —Hess

Let's never forget that others have died so that we might live.

Exciting Changes COMING SOON!

Sundays are great, aren't they? And they're about to get even better! Your Wollaston Church Board is excited to announce our NEW fellowship space to be revealed in the coming weeks. Our sanctuary will receive some updates that will allow us to be more relationally minded as we worship each Sunday morning. By removing some of the pews from the back of the sanctuary, we will open up a new area created for building relationships and worshipping in community.

Stay tuned for updates!

L.I.F.T. (Ladies in Fellowship Together)
Wednesdays, 6:30-8pm, Heritage Room
ONGOING FALL BIBLE STUDY: *Leading a Life of Balance. How do we balance time for God, responsibilities, and the interruptions and distractions that are inevitable? Check out our flyer at the Info Table for more details! We would love for you to join us - it's never too late!
